the crops.

The air is full of rumors of coming "strikes," to say nothing of those now in being; but so long as the crops show no disposition to follow suit we think the country's safe.

During a terrible hail storm near Westfield, Texas, on Friday, a man named James Norseworthy was beaten to death by hail stones, some of which were as large as hens' eggs.

The Bluff Citizen has again changed hands. George R. Thomas, of Dexter. Mo., is the purchaser, and George H. Kelly and John L. Batterton will edit the formation of the Argentine Repubthe paper. They are good boys, and lic. Some years afterward he came to we wish them success.

Gen. Wheeler, of Alabama, the fourth Democratic congressional victim of Republican tyranny, was ousted from the seat to which he was elected, on Friday, by a strict party vote. Mackey, of South Carolina, was seated on Wednesday, upon forged testimony and despite the most glaring that the name of Garibaldi was as injustice.

There is a small taste of old-time Missouri politics in the Republican Congressional proceedings these days. Smith is a Democratic Congressman; Brown, contestant, is a Republican; terial and spare time, I shall endeavor ergo, Smith "must go." Gen. Guiseppe Garibaldi, the Liberator of Italy, died on the island of Caprera, June 2, at the age of 75. Thus closes the career of one of the most remarkable men of the century. He was a revolutionist from early youth, and the work of his life was fighting tyranny. In consequence he was several times expatriated from his native land, of which he was destined to be the savior. He took a prominent part in the revolutionary movements in South America which resulted in the United States, where he made a fortune in business, when he returned The "wah" between the Ripley finally to Italy. Garibaldi's greatest Ku-Klux. May he ever be successful. Italy. By his efforts the Kingdom of Naples was annexed to the Kingdom of Italy. He was a true patriot: although repeatedly offered titles, station and wealth in recognition of his eminent services to the state, he resolutely declined them all, declaring that he was able to earn his own living, and good a title as he desired to wear.
